If these customers have already purchased an e-book from you, ask for his or her opinion when it comes to price. Do that by creating a gross sales web page for the new guide, but do not embody a price on that page. As a substitute, add a lot of links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to aid you in assigning a worth to your ebook.

One other technique is to check out costs by making a variety of duplicate gross sales pages with different prices on every page. Be certain that your sales copy is strictly the identical on each web page, and includes your selling-handle sentence. Then determine for every page the conversion ratio between guests to your site and gross sales of your book. This will let you know what your optimum value is.

Finally, if you happen to've written a book that solves a problem or presents a new technique, your e-book will herald both traffic and profits.
