Do that by creating a gross sales web page for the brand new e-book, but don't embody a price on that page. As a substitute, add quite a lot of hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to aid you in assigning a value to your ebook.

One other technique is to check out prices by making a number of duplicate gross sales pages with completely different prices on each page. Make sure that your gross sales copy is exactly the similar on each web page, and contains your promoting-handle sentence. Then work out for every web page the conversion ratio between guests to your web site and gross sales of your book. This may tell you what your optimum price is.

Finally, if you've written a e-book that solves a problem or presents a new approach, your ebook will herald both visitors and profits.
