An effective approach for figuring out a price is to send out a survey to your present customers. If these clients have already purchased an e book from you, ask for his or her opinion in terms of price. Do that by creating a gross sales page for the new guide, but don't embody a price on that page. Instead, add quite a few hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a price to your ebook.

One other technique is to check out prices by creating a number of duplicate sales pages with totally different costs on every page. Be sure that your gross sales copy is strictly the same on every web page, and includes your selling-handle sentence. Then figure out for every page the conversion ratio between visitors to your website and sales of your book. This may tell you what your optimum worth is.

In the end, in the event you've written a book that solves a problem or presents a new technique, your guide will herald each site visitors and profits.
